information about any of the above events.

As already mentioned on the front cover, the show jumping competition cancelled on 9th June has now been re-scheduled to the evening of 21st July. The show jumping will run alongside the dressage show planned for the same evening.

The schedule of classes will remain exactly the same, so don't forget to add this date to your diary of jumping events.

COMPETITION ENTRIES

Please make sure you follow the correct entry procedure when advance entries are required. Telephone entries are NOT accepted under any circumstances. Anybody who has a query should contact the secretary of the specific event and not the RFRC Committee Secretary. Thank you for your co-operation.

TRAINING BOOKING FORMS

For those of you who are not yet computer literate or do not have access to a computer, a generic training form has been added to this newsletter for your convenience. Any forms should be returned to Danielle Marcus with the exception of any Jonathan Canty sessions, these should be returned to Jonathan. Both addresses have been added to the form. Please be very specific about which training session you are entering to avoid any disappointment.

Additionally, in order to meet current BRC Health & Safety regulations, all booking forms will require trainees to supply information about emergency contacts, medical conditions etc.

BHS SUMMER CHARITY BALL

Please answer my texts, some days I think there is no-one out there. It isn't an automated function, I really do sit there keying in your individual phone numbers. Even if you are say no, I would rather hear from you. For some your mobile phone number doesn't seem to work, please can you check the list of what's on and get in touch with me.

MESSAGE FROM ROSEMARY BATTEN, AREA REP

May I congratulate all the riders who have competed at the area qualifiers so far this year, and wish those who still have their qualifier to come, good luck.

Please remember that all of you who are RFRC members can compete in these qualifiers. There really is something for everyone, and believe me when I say “you can do it”

All you have to do is to read your newsletter and send your names to Ben or Antonia to say you would like to have a go. It is far easier for you to make that one phone call, or email message, than for them to ring loads of you. You are expected to pay the entry fees for the qualifier, but if you qualify for the Championships, then RFRC will pay your entry fee and one night's stabling. All the Championships are within easy reach of us and they are really friendly.

Come along to Aston-Le-Walls on August 6th/7th 8th and see for yourself what to expect. It is free for spectators. There will be trade stands and food stalls and good action. The viewing facilities are great there. Dogs are welcome on leads. Roger and I will be there so you will know someone, and hopefully Jo Brown will also be competing. For more information please don't hesitate to ring or email me, rosebatten@aol.com

Helpers are required for the Area Show Jumping Qualifier at Earls Barton, we need a secretary, a number distributor, an arena party and collecting ring stewards. You will be fed and watered and your help will be greatly appreciated.

EVENTER TRIAL CHALLENGE QUALIFIER

For the Festival of the Horse 2011 will be held in October, date to be confirmed. The novice course is about 85cm -90cm, with the Open at 1m maximum. More details when they are available.
